

Deepening Community – A Book Review and Conversation with Paul Born

How do we build meaningful, inclusive communities for ourselves and our children? What does a meaningful community look like? These are questions that many of us are asking, particularly in an age of social distancing.

To answer these questions, the Atlantic Summer Institute on Healthy and Safe Communities (ASI) and Bookmark Charlottetown are hosting Community – A Book Review and Conversation with Paul Born on Wednesday, October 20th. This free, online session will include an overview of Paul's book "Deepening Community: Finding Joy in Chaotic Times", as well as a Q&A session with Paul.

This event will take place Wednesday, October 20th at 12pm AT. Click here to register!
